IL-18 NEWSLETTER #6

Dear participants,

As to given circumstances, the organisers feel that it is necessary to issue following warning.

Lately a „special offer“ in connection with our flight has been spread among the internet community. An unknown person from Moldova is offering a seat on our flight for a „special fare“ of 350 EUR.

This offer is a fraud !

We clearly state the following ;

- A seat on this flight can only be booked via Michael or myself through the published channels
- People, who are not on our passenger list, can not participate
- There is only one fare, which has been communicated to you. The full amount needs to be transferred to the mentioned US$ bank account of A+M Africa Tours in Switzerland
- We would like to point out that the price will be used to charter the aircraft and to pay all related bills and expenses. It does not include any profit for the organizers of this flight

Best regards for now
Michael Reich & Daniel Frohriep
